September is Library Card Sign-up Month

Autobots, roll out...to the library!

Whether you're upgrading your skills, scouting for knowledge and information, or connecting with other heroic readers, a library card is your key to an arsenal of resources. Spark your creativity as a builder or programmer by tinkering in your library's makerspace; mine the library's stacks and databases for new stories and adventures; kickstart your critical thinking skills to defeat the Decepticons of misinformation lurking online. Hitting the road? Use your library card to fuel your mind with books, e-Books, audiobooks, and museum passes.

Display these new materials, featuring art by Marz Jr., to show everyone there's more than meets the eye to your local library. Created in partnership with Skybound, Hasbro, and Image Comics. Roll out and sign up for a library card today!

Banned Books Week

September 22–28, 2024

We can find freedom in the pages of a book. But book bans and censorship threaten that freedom, along with our libraries and other institutions. During Banned Books Week 2024 and beyond, let's celebrate our shared love for the right to read and the freedom found in books. Let's be Freed Between the Lines! Learn more at ala.org/bbooks.

The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse

Bring a touch of wonder to the walls of your library with this beautiful poster featuring the beloved characters from Charlie Mackesy's international bestseller, The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse. This charming illustration captures the essence of Mackesy's heartwarming story and is a reminder of the power of friendship, kindness, and the magic of stories.

The Boy, the Mole, the Fox and the Horse was published in October 2019 and has appeared on The New York Times bestseller list for over 220 weeks. It has been adapted into an Academy Award®-winning animated short film, now available to stream on Apple TV+. Special thanks to Charlie Mackesy for creating original artwork and HarperOne, an imprint of HarperCollins.

NEW!*Mexikid

Encourage readers—in English and Spanish—with this new poster and bookmark from author-illustrator Pedro Martín. Inspired by his graphic memoir, Mexikid, these vibrant items are filled with eye-catching imagery that takes the viewer on a visual voyage. Mexikid tells the story of a Mexican American boy's family and their adventure-filled road trip to bring their abuelito back from Mexico.

Mexikid received numerous awards including the 2024 Pura Belpré Author Award and Illustrator Award, a Newbery Honor, and an Odyssey Audiobook Honor. Special thanks to Pedro Martín for creating original artwork and Dial Books for Young Readers, an imprint of Penguin Books for Young Readers, a division of Penguin Random House.

Maya Hawke and Ethan Hawke

For Ethan and Maya Hawke, a love of reading runs in the family. Father and daughter recently bonded over the works of Flannery O'Connor with Ethan co-writing and directing Wildcat, a film about the acclaimed Southern Gothic writer. Maya stars as the author, desperate to make her mark as she struggles with lupus, the same disease that took her father's life.

Maya joined the critically acclaimed TV drama Stranger Things in its third season and became a fan favorite for her performance as Robin Buckley, the first LGBTQ+ character on the show. Her film roles include Asteroid City, Maestro, and Do Revenge. Ethan is one of Hollywood's most multi-faceted stars: actor, screenwriter, director, producer, and best-selling novelist. His prolific film acting career includes Dead Poets Society, Reality Bites, Gattaca, Training Day, Boyhood, and many more. As an author, he most recently released A Bright Ray of Darkness and the graphic novel Meadowlark: A Coming-of-Age Crime Story.

Celebrate Latino Heritage

Celebrate Latino Heritage Month with a new poster and bookmark by award-winning author-illustrator Duncan Tonatiuh. In Tonatiuh's signature style, a young Latino boy reclines as he reads, and his shadow is transformed into a map of the United States and Latin America. Use these materials to celebrate Latino voices and stories this fall and all year long.

Duncan Tonatiuh has received numerous accolades including most recently a 2023 Pura Belpré Honor for A Land of Books: Dreams of Young Mexihcah Word Painters. His artwork is inspired by Pre-Columbian art, particularly that of the Mixtec codices. A new, bilingual picture book, ¡Felicidades!: A Celebration with Shapes, is available August 6. Special thanks to Duncan Tonatiuh for creating original artwork and Abrams Children's Books.
